

Enhance your picnic with our talented performers

Summer picnics can be a perfect way to add some feel-good summer vibes to the office. Sometimes you need that little extra "oomph" in your picnic, and TeamUnity has the perfect solution!

Keep your guests engaged with our strolling magicians, get the groove flowing with our talented musicians, and bring a smile to any child's face with our hilarious and endearing clowns. Entertainment is a vital aspect of any company picnic. Outdoor activities of all sorts can also be used to bring your guests together. Maybe a dunk tank or mechanical bull is up your alley. Adding a little bit of daring fun can take your gathering from good to great!

The more your attendees get involved, the better relationships are forged which creates a positive impact on productivity & long-term working environment. By choosing multiple performers or activities you are providing your guests with unforgettable entertainment.
